Veil the Deception, Harvest Souls – Trumpets the Dragon (Copyright) by Richard Frates (Easley, South Carolina)

Shroud the Fraud, words have meaning: All Sexual Perverts are to be called “gay” or “LGBT.” The Veil: Licenses all the Dragon’s faithful and some dimwitted, Right, Left and Religious to plant - spiritual Poison - in hearts and minds. Removing the Veil and referring to Sexual Perverts as Sexual Perverts will Kill the Dragon. Praise the Dragons faithful in Media, Education, and Politics. They will Condemn those who, speak the truth, without the Veil. When Media: Uses the Veil “gay” and “LGBT” seeking opinions regarding what Americans think about “Sexual Perverts” they plant the Dragons’ Poison.

As long as the Veil “gay” and “LGBT” Shrouds the meaning of Sexual Pervert, planting acceptance of the Dragons spiritual poison in hearts and minds, is automatic and will recruit the masses. Will the Dragons faithful claim referring to Sexual Perverts is “Bigoted” and a Hate crime? True Bigots: Like the Dragon, believe, freedom of speech must be chained, because Truth will Kill the Dragon and exposes the Fraud of his children. The Bigoted Children of the Dragon: Believe: All must Honor what they honor or be forced to. Hate, Subjugate and Dominate is the language of the Dragon and his children. Hate the innocent and praise the wicked is their devoted work.

Who is the spiritual father of today’s Media and, Nation Leaders? Answer: Speaking of the Devil Jesus Christ said “There is not truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language.” In the Twisted minds of Media, Educators and Leftist Politicians: Deception is Truth, Darkness is Light and imposing their Darkness on the masses is Heaven! Today young boys and teenagers are being raped by Sexually Perverted Men: National Political Leaders Close their eyes, Why? Because they are Driven like Dumb Mules by the Devils Faithful in Media! Media is intent on Honoring, and Praising, what God proclaimed is evil and Vile. Judges made same sex marriage legal: To Mock God creation of male and female, fathers and mothers and Discriminate against all who believe God.

National Leaders, Media and Christians who Veil the truth, seeking acceptance from the Dragon children: Repent and call on, Sexual Perverts, to repent. Judgment Day is the Day of your death, you will Not remember being dead. Unveiled Truth will Chain the Dragon! Jesus Christ Crucified is Light that Shines beyond the Grave. Praise God.

Sky Tower Hit – Discovery Site Down, Now Up (Copyright 2008) by Jonathan Gray (Thames, New Zealand)

First, I want to apologize and tell you what happened yesterday.

The "New" Church of God Messenger
A Newsletter for the People of God
January 21, 2023 --- Issue No. 103

Just as this newsletter went to you, a severe electric storm cut all communication through the Sky Tower and brought our site down so you could not reach it.

But - good news - it has just gone back up - functioning fully again, so I am resending you this important message so you can now access the site.

You are about to hear some fascinating news.

But first, did you catch what's being planned for Europe? There'll be fireworks over this, you can be sure.

The plan has been announced that in the emerging new united Europe, all national borders will vanish. No, this is no April fool's hoax.

Already many in England are irate about this - because it means the destruction of England.

What millions in World War II fought to stop Hitler doing, is now planned to happen anyway - by stealth.

And as the Telegraph News Service further reports:

"England has been wiped off a map of Europe drawn up by Brussels bureaucrats as part of a scheme that the Tories claim threatens to undermine the country's national identity.

"The new European plan splits England into three zones that are joined with areas in other countries.

"The 'Manche' region covers part of southern England and northern France while the Atlantic region includes western parts of England, Portugal, Spain and Wales.

"The North Sea region includes eastern England, Sweden, Denmark, the Netherlands and parts of Germany.

"A copy of the map, which takes no reference to England or Britain, has even renamed the English Channel the 'Channel Sea'."

Did you know that a poster of the new Europe portrays the ancient Tower of Babel, with the slogan, "Many Tongues, One Voice"?

I was quietly pondering that when my wife Josephine asked, "What was the very first human tongue?"

I looked up. "You mean, what was the very first human language?"

"Yes," she replied. "Or do you have any idea what is our closest modern language to the original, First Tongue?"

A fascinating question, don't you think?

Would you like to know?

As an archaeologist, I believe the answer has now been discovered.

Out in the remote canyons of the Pergatoire River, just south of La Junta, Colorado, researcher Gary Vey was examining some very old petroglyphics.

The amazing thing was that these ancient alphabetic symbols were virtually identical to others found in the Negev desert of Israel, in South Australia, in Yemen, in Chile and in the British Isles!

On six continents, the ancient language symbols were virtually the same.

The "New" Church of God Messenger
A Newsletter for the People of God
January 21, 2023 --- Issue No. 103

After numerous deciphering attempts, translations were eventually made with success through an old Hebrew dialect.

The Colorado alphabet consisted of 22 basic, distinct geometric shapes and some variations. Vey has termed it "The First Tongue".

Translations of similar petroglyphs by another team in Australia proved that they originated with the same root culture and ascribed to the same rules of grammar and symbols.

Likewise with the petroglyphs in Israel's Negev desert, documented by Dr James Harris, during the Harvard expedition in 1994.

These, along with those on other continents, hinted at an original common language.

ONLY ONE GLOBAL LANGUAGE AT FIRST

If we were to trace the footsteps of the first migration wave, we would discover that it has left its traces in just ONE UNIVERSAL LANGUAGE.

This fact that the whole world once spoke the same language survives in the racial memory of many peoples.

A fragmentary Sumerian tablet copied by the Oxford cuneiformist Oliver Gurney speaks of a time when "the whole universe" spoke "in one tongue."

The epic myth of Enmerker and the Lord of Araita, published by Professor S.N. Kramer, of the University of Pennsylvania, records that all mankind spoke one and the same language until Enki, the Sumerian god of wisdom, confounded their speech.

The idea that there was a time when all men spoke the same language is found also in ancient Egyptian and Indian writings.

Likewise, the Popul Vuh, a book of the Central American Maya, records that "those who gazed at the rising of the sun [the ancestors who formerly lived eastward of the Americas], had but one language before going west."

These testimonies support the biblical book of Genesis statement that "all the earth was of one language, and of one speech." (Genesis 11:1)

SUDDEN CONFUSION OF LANGUAGES

Numerous ancient traditions concur that:

- (a) Everyone spoke a single language at first.
- (b) The various languages did not arise capriciously, independently.
- (c) In a single dramatic event the one original language became suddenly confused.
- (d) Then from one central point the people were scattered to the ends of the earth.

Interestingly, all three branches of the human race recall this.

Various peoples, such as the Mexicans, the Chaldeans, the Hindus, the Greeks, the Chiapa of the Americas, Australian Aboriginal tribes, and the Fijians, to name a few, were discovered with a tradition concerning this event in which each tribe received a new language.

So evidently, this is not just some biblical fairytale. This ancient event has been burnt into the racial memory of mankind as a whole.

LANGUAGE DID NOT JUST "EVOLVE"

Were you aware that no society is known at any point in history which did not have a fully developed language? (Encyclopedia Britannica, 15th ed., Macrop., vol.19, p.1033).

The "New" Church of God Messenger
A Newsletter for the People of God
January 21, 2023 --- Issue No. 103

We find NO EVIDENCE for any kind of evolutionary development of language. The fact is evolution cannot in any meaningful manner account for one language, much less hundreds of languages.

In any case, who had time to formulate grammar when we were all supposedly running around simply trying to survive the next few minutes of life?

I have lived with jungle savages. And did you know that the most primitive tribes possess the most sophisticated languages?

THE FIRST RELIGION?

Would you like to know what the original religion of planet earth was? Or what is the closest modern day religion to the original?

Here, again, archaeology comes to the rescue.

IS THE "ONE GOD" IDEA THE RESULT OF EVOLUTION?

Have you ever heard it said that religion just evolved? Or that man's thinking has evolved gradually from magic, to religion, to science?

That from an initial primitive worship of many gods, religion evolved to the idea of just one God (monotheism)?

Has anyone ever told you that?

Let's face it, you'll hear it today in many places of learning.

Well, we've been had! And all so as to get the evolution theory accepted.

Well, wouldn't you rather know the truth? Then here it is.

There is not a shred of evidence for this supposed progression from magic, to religion, to science.

On the contrary, archaeology shows us there was science from the very start of human presence on earth.

That's the opposite from what the evolution theory predicted.

SAME CULTURE AND SAME RELIGION ORIGINALLY

So, what is the truth about religion?

Well, you'll recall that researchers on six continents have been discovering script in mankind's "First Tongue".

And that the content of the translations, although not complete, suggests a single culture and religious belief system, worldwide.

MONOTHEISM AT FIRST

But the evidence goes further than that.

Two common petroglyphs represent the names of deity – "EL" and "YAH". "EL" represents the abstract form of deity - that which cannot be comprehended by man, while "YAH" is the Creator.

Both concepts represent a single deity - One God - but recognize the aspects of "knowable" and "unknowable" deity.

A successful translation has been made of the entire top row of the Colorado inscriptions, reading, "YARE HA EL", or "PRAISE THE LORD".

This indicates a monotheistic religious belief at that early time when there was still a global language.

The “New” Church of God Messenger
A Newsletter for the People of God
January 21, 2023 --- Issue No. 103

It hints at an original faith inherited from the earliest ancestors.

The evidence shows that MONOtheism lay at the root of all religions. And this continued until shortly after 2000 BC, when monotheism began to degenerate into pantheism, polytheism, and animism.

Careful archaeologists and historians (Horn, Faber, Rawlinson, Waddell and Budge, to name a few) insist, from their discoveries, that the earliest Sumerians, Iranians, Phoenicians, Egyptians and Indians were monotheists.

Those early civilizations recognized supremely one only God.

They knew also that there was an original prophecy that although man had messed up himself and the planet, and could not get himself out of the mess, the Creator would ultimately send a Rescuer to cure all ills

ALL NATIONS AWAITED HIM

This, the world’s oldest prophecy, which our first parents claimed was given to them, was handed down to all their descendants - the prophecy of a coming Deliverer, no less.

Among the ancient Babylonians, Persians, Chinese, Hindus, Germans, British, Romans, Egyptians and others, there was an expectation that this Great One was coming to cure all ills.

The Roman historian Tacitus refers to this expectation among the nations. (Tacitus, Histories, v.13. Suetonius, Vespasian, iv)

Dupuis, in L’Origine des Cultus, has collected a vast number of traditions prevalent in all nations concerning a divine person, born of a virgin - that is, without an earthly father.

He would come from heaven for the purpose of delivering mankind. He would lay down his life once for all, but rising to life again would ultimately bring a new world.

This prophecy appears to be as old as the human race.

Notice how an ancient poet contemplated this prophecy:

A golden progeny from heaven descends, O chaste Lucinda!
speed the mother’s pains And haste the glorious birth!
...virtue shall restore,
And crimes shall threat the guilty world no more...
The warring nations he in peace shall bind,
And with paternal virtues rule mankind.

And here are the words of another poet of old:

Hail, great Physician of the world! all hail!
Hail, mighty Infant, who, in years to come,
Shall heal the nations
and defraud the tomb!...
Thy daring art shall animate the dead,
And draw the thunder on Thy guilty head;
For Thou shalt die, but from the dark abode Rise up victorious, and be twice a God!

* The Babylonians and Persians expected a king-redeemer and hero-sage, who would establish a new age of happiness.

* The Chinese also believed that a great wise man would appear.

The “New” Church of God Messenger
A Newsletter for the People of God
January 21, 2023 --- Issue No. 103

* The Hindus believed that the supreme God would reveal himself to humans and that ultimately would come a new world.

* The ancient Germans looked forward to the renewal of the present world.

* The Druids of Britain expected the coming of the “Curer of all ills.”

* Likewise, in the earliest Egyptian texts are found prophecies proclaiming the coming of this Savior of the human race - prophecies that were already ancient.

In these Egyptian texts we are brought face to face with prophecies concerning a Messiah who was to come.

It was held that “the teacher awaited since the creation of the world” had not yet been manifested on earth. His coming was to end in his sacrifice and bring about the regeneration of mankind.

The ancient Egyptian messianic prophecies refer to the Messiah as “The Lord of Death and Resurrection”.

In course of time these prophecies of the Messiah became paganized by the substitution of Osiris (the god of Vegetational Decay and Regeneration) and other deities.

Osiris then usurped the attributes and functions of the promised Messiah that had been known in earlier Egyptian prophecy.

Only in the late Egyptian literature (from late in the 18th and early in the 19th Dynasty) did Osiris and other gods usurp the functions and attributes of the Promised One.

That was after religious degeneration had set in well and truly.

But originally, the position of Osiris was not messianic. Osiris was at first no more than an allegorical figurehead, a patron of corn, a personification of the agricultural seasons. (Stewart The Witness of the Great Pyramid, 1928, pp. 64,65)

Much, much later he became “a god who had been originally a mortal and had risen from the dead.” (E.A. Wallis Budge, The Book of the Dead. London: British Museum Publications, 1920)

And only then were the added attributes of the Promised One given to him.

Noted archaeologist Professor Budge points out:

“The beliefs which were conceived by the Egyptians in their lowest states of civilization were mingled with those which reveal the existence of high spiritual conceptions [at first].” (Budge The Gods of the Egyptians, 1969 Vol. I, p.32)

PURER FAITH AT THE BEGINNING

Although modern Hinduism recognizes a multitude of gods (possessing different influences on human affairs), yet the Indian sacred books show that originally it had been far otherwise.

Speaking of the Supreme God (known in their language as Brahm):

* Of Him whose glory is so great, there is no image. (Veda)

* [He] illumines all, delights all, whence all proceeded; that by which they live when born, and that to which all must return. (Veda)

* He whom the mind alone can perceive; whose essence eludes the external organs, who has no visible parts, who exists from eternity. The soul of all beings, whom no being can comprehend. (Institutes of Menu)

In these passages there is a trace of pantheism beginning to emerge, but the very language employed bears testimony to the existence among the Hindus at one period of a far purer faith.

The “New” Church of God Messenger
A Newsletter for the People of God
January 21, 2023 --- Issue No. 103

Brahm (the one infinite and eternal God) is just the original Hebrew Rahm, with the “b” prefixed, which is very frequent in Sanskrit words derived from Hebrew or Chaldee.

The Hebrew Rahm means “the merciful, or compassionate One”. But Rahm also means “the Womb”, or “the Bowels” as the seat of compassion.

Now we find such language applied to Brahm, as cannot be accounted for, except by realizing that Brahm had the very same meaning as the Hebrew Rahm.

Thus we find the god Krishna, in one of the Hindu sacred books (when asserting his high dignity as a divinity, and his identity with the Supreme) using these words:

“The great Brahm is my Womb, and in it I place my foetus, and from it is the procreation of all nature. The great Brahm is the Womb of all the various forms which are conceived in every natural womb.”

It is very clear that Brahm comes from Rahm which means Womb or Merciful One. Brahm is just the same as Er-Rahman (“the all-merciful One”), a title applied by the Turks to the Most High.

Thus the Hindus, despite the deterioration of understanding seen today, once knew the Creator as “the God of mercy”, that is, “a just God and a rescuer”.

He was also called in India “the victim-man”. (And among the Buddhists he was commonly addressed as “Savior of the world”. (Mahawanso, xxxi ‘apud’. Pococke’s India in Greece, p. 185)

Furthermore, the meaning of Deva (the generic name for “God” in India) is similar. Deva originally came from the Chaldean Thav (“Good”).

Thav is also legitimately pronounced Thev and in the emphatic form is Theva or Thevo (“the Good”). “Th” is frequently pronounced “Dh” Hence Deva.

The “v” is frequently dropped (just as “novus” in Latin is “neos” in (Greek). Dheva, or Theva, or Thevo becomes Deva. It also becomes Deo or Devs, (“God” in Latin) and Theos (“God” in Greek), or Theo-s or Thevo-s.

This reflects the passage in the Bible that says, “There is none good but One, that is God [Theos, the Good].” (Matthew 19:17)

GRADUAL INCREASE IN GODS

Ancient textual evidence shows that the trend was to increase the number of gods as time passed, rather than decrease them. (Siegfried H. Horn, Records of the Past Illuminate the Bible, 1975, p. 12)

It was only the later nations who were POLYtheists (worshipping many gods).

As an example of how far this trend has developed over the past 4,000 years, it is calculated that today the Hindu religion has 600,000 gods.

Was Jesus Created?

(Copyright) by BibleStudy.org (Farmington, Michigan)

Was Jesus Christ created by God the Father? Did the Lord have a beginning just like all the angels? On the other hand, has he always existed as a member of the Godhead? How is Jesus the firstborn among many brethren?

Some believers think that Jesus, the Word of God, was created by the Father somewhere in the eternal past. One of the proof texts used to support this theory that Christ was made (and therefore did not always exist like the Father) is in Revelation 3.

Revelation 3:14 states "These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God" (KJV). This verse has been twisted to mean that the Amen (Jesus), who is also the Beginning, the Alpha as well as the Omega, came into literal existence at his birth through Mary.

So, what does the fourteenth verse of Revelation 3 mean? Does it mean that God created Jesus? Of what is Christ the beginning? Believe it or not, although Genesis 1:1 is the first literal verse in the Bible, it is not the first verse chronologically speaking! The first verse in time sequence is John 1:1, which says that before the 'beginning' was the Word (the Being who would become Jesus Christ) who was both with and was God!

God separating earth and waters
Michelangelo, 1511

John 1:3 states that all things (meaning the entire physical universe we can see and the spiritual universe which we cannot) were made by Christ. John goes even further and declares that there is not one thing (except, of course, God the Father and God the Son) in existence anywhere that does not trace its creation to the Word! Therefore, the first verse of Genesis can rightfully be restated as 'In the beginning Jesus made the heavens . . .'

The book of Genesis says that in the beginning God created living creatures after their KIND (Genesis 1:21) but made man after the image of the God kind (of which, at the time, was composed of two God Beings, the Father and Jesus Christ - Genesis 1:26).

A "kind" does not become a family until they produce their first offspring who are genetically related to them. According to an online dictionary, a woman and a man that are married are technically not a family. They only become a family

A Newsletter for the People of God
January 21, 2023 --- Issue No. 103

when they produce at least one or more children that are genetically like themselves.

Ephesians 3:14 - 15 is the key passage that helps us answer our question. These two verses state that 'the whole FAMILY in heaven and earth' is named through God. The Bible also states in Romans 8:29 that Jesus is 'the firstborn among many brethren.' As stated previously, kinds do not become families until the first offspring is produced.

When Jesus was resurrected to an external existence he became 'the firstborn from the dead' (Colossians 1:18) and the beginning of the God family. He was the literal transition from God as a KIND to God as a family! Romans 1:14 confirms this when it states that he was "declared to be the Son of God with power . . . by the resurrection from the dead."

Jesus Christ was decidedly not created by God! He has existed for eternity as a member of the Godhead. The Father did, however, make him the beginning of his family, a family where every human being has the potential of entering.

The “King James Only” Movement (Copyright 2003) by Wayne Schatzle (West Chester, Ohio)

Over the years I have heard of more than a few curious beliefs extant in religious circles today. One that pops up every so often is: “The King James Version {KJV} is the only acceptable Bible translation Christians should use.” The argument is that “modern” translations {since 1901} are New age propaganda tools of the anti-christ to prepare the world to accept the end time, one world apostate church. Supposedly, there is a hidden alliance between all publishers of modern translations and the new age movement with ties to occult and homosexual organizations!

Most adherents of this belief are not aware that this movement was formed by a handful of conspiracy theorists with sensational expose’ books and videos. Like all conspiracies the usual suspects are blamed. This debate has caused some heated, and very unchristian words, from both sides of the issue each calling on the results from their own professional researchers. To the average person, they will usually wind up following the argument that is best presented rather than doing their own research. As always, I encourage people to do their own study and prove things to themselves.

If one wishes to use the KJV only, as mentioned, that is fine, but for many people the archaic language of the 1600s is quite a distraction to study and makes study impossible for most beginners. In addition to the obvious grammatical errors, the “eth” suffix, thee and thou’s, and a host of common words that have changed their meaning over the centuries, study is difficult to say the least. I have conducted and attended many open bible studies where several translations were in use and seldom were any significant differences found.

I have over two dozen different translations in my personal library and refer to many of them often. I have yet to find anything but minor problems in translations, even the much-criticized Douay-Rheims version based on the Latin Vulgate is a valuable tool for searching Christians and again, few discrepancies. There is great value in using the KJV as a study bible, mainly because there are so many bible helps geared to it. Oddly enough, all my bible helps are KJV oriented and yet are easily used with my other translations! Also, the KJV has been studied for so many years that most all errors are known- in spite of the fact that the KJV only adherents insist there are no errors.

Bible students should be aware that there are no original manuscripts in existence today, only many times copied copies over several centuries and all contain errors and include copyist marginal notes! Plus, any translation will reflect a bias of the translators and the KJV translators are no different. Another facet of the KJVO proponents is that they believe King James of England was pure in character and purpose, which a little study will show just the opposite. For further study on this interesting topic check out these web pages: www.isitso.org/guide/kjvonly.html or www.kjvonly.org/doug/unlearned_men.htm

Prophecy Articles

The 'X' Mark

(Copyright) by Dwight Fleming (Orville, California)

Elon Musk has stirred up some controversy over his purchase of Twitter and his recent Twitter file revelations. While his actions are applauded by many conservative thinkers, there are those who question his motivations for gaining control of the Twitter platform which is a kind of "public square."

Mark Moss posted a video where he digs into some possible reasons for Elon's Twitter purchase. This is an important video for prophecy watchers to be aware of. Before you watch the video linked below, there is something that we must first explore. Otherwise, the Mark Moss video won't reveal anything of possible prophetic significance.

Christmas has become a popular holiday for many even if they don't claim to be Roman Catholic or belong to any Christian denomination. While the holiday is steeped in pagan symbolism, there is something about its modern name of "Christmas" which may give us a prophetic clue. Rather, it is the abbreviated spelling of Christmas which is "Xmas." As a "know-nothing" kid long ago, this abbreviated spelling puzzled me. I later learned why this abbreviated spelling was sometimes used.

If you look up the Greek spelling of "Christ," you will see that it begins with 'X'. It is called "Chi." Thus, the 'X' in "Xmas" stands for Christ. Look up "Chi Rho" on the internet. "Rho" is the second Greek letter of Christ. It looks like 'P'. Emperor Constantine had his soldiers put the two letters on their shields before the Battle at Milvian Bridge in 313 A.D. He attributed his victory to this symbol which led to his Edict of Milan which made Christianity legal in the Roman Empire.

Whenever a cowboy who could not write needed to sign a legal document, he was told to "make his mark." (At least in the old-time movies that I watched as a kid.) And what was that mark? It was usually an 'X'.

"And the second beast required all people small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hand or on their forehead, so that no one could buy or sell unless he had the mark" (Revelation 13:16-17).

The Bible predicts a future payment system which involves a mark of some kind. Could a new payment system involve an 'X'? This is where Elon Musk comes in. With the above in mind, you may find the first video quite revealing. It is also interesting that Elon's space program is called "SpaceX."

The second video goes so far as suggesting that Elon may become the Antichrist. That may be farfetched. Yet, after watching it, you will understand that conclusion. Elon may not become the Antichrist, yet the technology that he is developing will certainly play a part in creating brain implants that could be used for evil purposes.

We can't make any definite conclusions at this point in time. We need to remain ever vigilant by watching what is happening in the world. As we see prophecy being fulfilled, it should motivate us to be prepared for the return of the real Christ, Jesus of Nazareth.

Laura, I found out about 2 1/2 years ago I had type 2 diabetes & also stage 3 chronic kidney disease. Then I happened to spot a book in our home that I didn't even know I had by Dr. Sherry Rogers, MD called How to cure Diabetes. I read through it and what she said made sense. She talks about how most doctors are dinosaurs and only treat symptoms, not the causes. I took notes and marked up the 379-page paperback book. My doctor said I stopped my diabetes and my chronic kidney disease.

If I had cancer, I would consider taking Chaga that is found on white birch trees. Pretty affordable on eBay. There is a book on this also. May depend on the type of cancer involved if any is even involved.

Response: Thank you, I am posting this for anyone who may benefit from this information. (Laura)

Iron Sharpening Iron

(Agree or Disagree with Something Printed)

New American Standard Bible (Proverbs 27:17)

As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another.

I must apologize to you. My newsletter two days ago included this sentence: "The reported discovery was made in a 4-mile-deep mine in Russia."

That was careless of me. What I should have said was that "The reported discovery was made 4 miles from the surface in a mine in Russia." That is, 4 miles from the entry point.

To repeat the difference, the location of the find was not 4 miles vertically down, but rather, as was their practice, the miners descended down the deep mine shaft, and then travelled horizontally inside the mine drive to their work location which was 4 miles from the entrance.

Our integrity is always more important than anyone's ego. So you can rest assured, if ever we become aware that there is a factual mistake in any report, we will always try to correct it for you.

In 16 years, this has been necessary only twice.

As is our usual practice, we work hard to confirm everything which we publicize. In this case, as already noted, our investigation of this report is faced with a block beyond which we cannot continue. However, for what it is worth, you have now received the information that it is possible to share with you.

Thank you for understanding.

Welcome To The World Of Satire

By Richard Markland

For the present generation who doesn't know there was a time when humor was the total opposite of what it is today, what people now find comical would never have been given the time of day 50 to 60 years ago.

Today's comedy is X-rated. Cartoon sitcoms such as Family Guy, American Dad, Cleveland Brown, and the Simpsons feature bestiality, pedophilia, homosexuality, and adultery. Dad is portrayed as a buffoon, Mom wears the pants in the family, the kids are brats, religion is the brunt of jokes, and morality is ridiculed. The shows are a reflection of society, and the fact that the sitcoms have been on TV for years is proof that Americans are desensitized to what's presented.

Welcome to the world of satire, where each character is just as odd as the narrative that accompanies each one. Hopefully you will find what's sent is a breath of fresh air. It's my way of countering the overwhelming presence of gutter level comedy that far too many people have accepted as the norm.

Where's the shame in what we've become? We've lost the ability to blush when it comes to humor. Too many people are polluting their minds without considering what it is doing to not only adults, but today's children.

What's enclosed is fiction, and any similarities to real people or events is purely coincidental.
