The Preferred Fabric for Clothing of Healing, Healthy Living and Well Being

ELECTRONIC PROPERTIES

At the electronic cellular level, flax cells are highly complementary with human cells; producing a benevolent effect on the human organism. The human cell is capable of completely dissolving a flax cell. It is interesting that flax thread appears to be the only natural material utilized for internal sutures in a surgical setting.

Scientists have discovered that linen fibers reflect light. The light energy aspect of living organisms has been measured by many individuals within the Scientific community. Nobel prize winning Dr. Otto Heinrich Warburg identified signature frequency numbers of the average human at 70-90. All results with numbers less than 50 were identified as the signature frequency of chronic disease. Any number less than 15 was identified with those having a diagnosed incurable condition such as cancer.

The measurement of linen fabric measures 5,000 signature frequencies. How do other fabrics compare? Plant fibers like cotton and hemp are not a healing fiber when measuring its signature energy output. Standard bleached and colored cotton measures 40 units of energy. The good news is that Organic unbleached cotton measures 100 units of energy which is a ‘normal’ but not a healing fiber. Organic Hemp to our surprise was zero units of energy and is not a healing fiber. The silk fabric measures 10 units of energy which would fail to support health in the human body. Could it be a low number because of its origin? Silk is produced from an ‘unclean’ insect. Could silk be also of so many chemicals that it is an unhealthy fabric. Rayon measures at 15 signature frequency. Polyester, acrylic, spandex, lycra, viscose and nylon measure zero and do not reflect light. Pure wool measures 5000 units of energy. For any individual desiring to be well the best recommendation from the instructions of the Holy Scriptures is to wear linen. The Biblical warning of wearing wool and linen together proved in scientific studies to be accurate: the energy of these two fabrics put together (wool sweater on top of a linen outfit) collapsed the electrical field as well as wearing of man-made black colored fabric. Where the two textiles measure 5,000 signature frequencies, when put together, these cancelled each other and brought measurable weakness and, in some tests, even pain to the human body.

HISTORICAL USE

Since the earliest times, flax has been known to have healing properties. Recent studies out of Japan and posted from the linen textile manufacturers confirm this truth. In the Latin language, the word flax means “being most useful” and the Holy Scriptures certainly emphasized this material over all other fabrics for the Holy attire. The original Hebrew language where the ancient sages of Judaism documented that עוֹר is flax linen instead of skins thus gives the attire of Adam and Eve as a linen robe of light (Genesis 3:21) instead of the caveman skins. In establishing the protocols ‘statutes’ of health, the prophet Moses received specific instructions. Cleansing a ‘leper’ meaning those ‘incurable’ gave distinct fabrics of attire: wool or natural colored linen (Leviticus 13:47-48) and not leather. It was emphasized as forbidden to wear linen and wool together (Leviticus 19:19 and Deuteronomy 22:11)

Historically the beautiful white linen attire of the Hebrew people was with Almighty God’s specific instructions, the decisions as given in the instructions “‘Torah’ as ordinances (Exodus 39:1-31). What special qualities were in this linen material that would restore life? Comprising a multitude of household items, flax possesses truly exceptional hygienic properties that heighten its value in consumer products and explains its widespread popularity.

Flax is an annual of the family Linaceae. There are over 200 varieties of flax plants that depending on the regional conditions and climate. Flax blooms in clusters of bluish, navy-blue, and, more seldom, violet, rosy and white flowers that open up at dawn and close and fall at around noon when heat sets in. Each flower blooms for a few hours. Bees collect close to fifteen kg of honey from one hectare of flax field. Researchers found that one will fall asleep faster, sleep deeper, and wake up in a better mood after sleeping in linen! No fabric outpaces linen in natural strength, luster, and durability. Ancient healing secrets revealed in the Holy Scriptures instruct that this fabric is considered Holy attire and part of the sanctification path. Linen is an ideal fabric not only for attire but for your table at every meal as a ‘high energy’ tablecloth and napkins.

PHYSICAL PROPERTIES

Flax fabric is an excellent filter protecting against chemical exposure, noise, and dust. – Linen clothing reduces solar gamma radiation by almost half thereby protecting humans wearing linen. -Flax fiber retrieved from contaminated soil appears to be totally resistant to harmful radiation. – Linen underwear heightens positive emotions as well as possessing rare bacteriological properties. Resistant to fungus and bacteria, flax is found to be an effective barrier to some diseases. According to Japanese researchers, studies have shown that bed-ridden patients do not develop bedsores where linen bed sheets are used. Wearing linen clothes helps to decrease some skin diseases – from common rash to chronic eczemas. -Linen is highly “hygroscopic” meaning it rapidly absorbs and gives up moisture. Adsorbing water as quickly as a pond surface, before giving a feeling of being wet, linen cloth can absorb as much as 20% of its dry weight. This explains why linen cloth always feels fresh and cool.

Linen does not cause allergic reactions and is helpful in treating a number of allergic disorders. Linen is effective in dealing with inflammatory conditions, reducing fever, and providing a healthy air exchange. Some neurological ailments benefit from the use of linen clothing.

Linen cloth does not accumulate static electricity – even a small addition of flax fibers (up to 10%) to a cloth is enough to eliminate the static electricity effect.

Linen possesses high air permeability and heat – Heat conductivity of Linen is five times as high as wool and 19 times as that of silk. In hot weather those dressed in Linen clothing are found to show the skin temperature 3°-4°C below that of their silk or cotton-wearing friends. According to some studies, a person wearing linen clothes perspires 1.5 times less than when dressed in cotton clothes and twice less than when dressed in viscose clothes. Meanwhile in cold weather linen is an ideal warmth-keeper.

Silica present in the flax fiber protects linen against rotting – the preserved mummies of Egyptian Pharaohs were wrapped in the finest linen cloth. Linen rejects dirt and does not get a furry texture; linen and linen-containing articles are easily laundered in hot water, may be boiled and dried in the sun, besides they may be hot-ironed thereby ensuring maximum sterilization; Linen provides a sensation of gentle, natural relief. Linen’s smooth surface and matte luster appears beautiful and feels pleasant to the touch. The more linen is washed, the softer and smoother it becomes.

TESTIMONIES

When wearing 100% linen, many individuals have testified that their healing was rapid. Post injury or surgical pain was substantially reduced (without the use of prescription or over the counter drugs) when using linen bandages and wearing linen clothing.

This information which would be a little noticed matter except for this research which demonstrates why it was a necessary part of the path of faith. A most remarkable testimony was shared by a Karaite Jew: He testified of his linen tallit, (prayer shawl) that was precious to him. This prayer shawl was so familiar to him that it was similar to a well-worn Holy Scriptures whose pages had become regularly touched with use. In questioning him as to why he still had it, he opened up to share a remarkable testimony. Thirteen years previously, his wife was in labor and delivered an infant that failed to breathe. Calling the emergency 911 team, they waited gripped with the inevitable loss of an infant in ‘stillbirth.’ Grief stricken, he grabbed his prayer shawl and held his daughter in his arms for an agonizing 30 minutes. He recited the prayers of faith while waiting for the team to arrive. Unbelievably, according to his account, when the paramedics arrived, and had not yet touched the infant, there was a dramatic color change for the infant and breathing had resumed! He testified that this special child has a brilliant mind and does well in school. This amazing miracle involved use of a specific linen tallit that would be ‘swaddling.’ Did this linen prayer shawl contribute to the healing of this infant– demonstrating the benefits of obedience to the specific divine requirements for linen for religious ceremonies as revealed above as recorded in the Holy Scriptures, Testimonies from many individuals confirm that this Biblical clothing protocol brought healing to their bodies.

The Holy Scriptures prescribes the wearing of linen or wool (separately of course) for those that are ill and ‘incurable’ in Leviticus 13. Linen is an ideal fabric not only for attire but for your table at every meal as a ‘high energy’ tablecloth and napkins. Flax seed (ground or as oil) served at every meal is an ideal ancient medicine. Flaxseed oil, fibers and flax lignans have potential health benefits such as in reduction of cardiovascular disease, atherosclerosis, diabetes, cancer, arthritis, osteoporosis, autoimmune and neurological disorders. Flax protein helps in the prevention and treatment of heart disease and in supporting the immune system.

In summary, if you wear black clothing, standard cotton clothing, rayon, polyester, and nylon stockings, these will hinder your health by discharging and extinguishing one’s electrical field light. When put into nature law depletion, there will be darkness. The human body will struggle with 9 areas of opened windows within the human body vulnerable for attack. The areas of windows in the ‘nerve bundle’ regions of the human body ‘leak’ subtle energy fields with the reserves of mineral charges. The dead battery effect would drain until the cellular function would be termed useless. If you have good flax next to wool or other man made ‘fake’ fibers, the energy signature will ‘discharge’ and one will suffer the consequences. This is the law of nature principle. What is at a higher level will come down to the average of the lower amount unless shielded. If you use cotton, rayon, these are not as strengthening to your body and may serve to keep your health ‘average’ with the typical western illnesses. If you want optimum health and healing and a strengthened immune system, you can choose to follow the instructions of the Holy Scriptures in getting your holy wardrobe knowing that you have the highest blessings available. Bless the LORD for this new knowledge and seek HIS ways.

BIBLICAL REFERENCES TO LINEN

"And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and bright: For fine linen is the righteousness of Saints" - Revelation 19:8

The description of the Tabernacle, which formed the central point of worship for the tribes of Israel, the historical record tells us that the curtains were of fine linen. The use of linen was to have holy garments for the priests of the nation for glory and for beauty (Exodus 28:2). On Yom Kippur the High Priest alone entered the Holy of Holies, to make atonement for his house and for the people (Lev. 16); on that occasion he wore white linen garments. Aaron, the high priest, entered the holy place, he put on a holy linen coat-and girdle, and upon his head was a linen cap, This shows the unique place held by linen in the history of ancient times, and the reverence accorded it is further demonstrated in the New Testament, which states that when the Revelation of things to come was vouchsafed to John, the seven angels, who held in their hands the past and future of mankind, were clothed in pure and white linen; and a final quotation from the same Book of Revelation informs us that the garments of those chosen for eternal life and happiness will be of fine linen. The use of linen for priestly vestments was not confined to the ancient Israelites. During the birth of the Messiah, we know that linen was a common fabric used by the people and the Temple because of its purity.

What prophecy has been of flax relating to the true Messiah? "A bruised reed shall he not break and the smoking flax shall he not quench: he shall bring forth judgment unto truth." - Isaiah 42:3 and Matthew 12:20. These are prophecies that would identify the Messiah to be a light to the Gentiles (Isaiah 42:6).

Getting OUR "tracks" back on track too (Copyright 2022) by Curtis Dahlgren (Stephenson, Michigan)

NEEDLESS TO SAY, the Democrats think they are our leftward angels. Mitt, Liz, and the never-Trumpers are too smug by half.

I asked a guy if he was a Trump fan and he said, "I'm not a fan of anybody." There's a little libertarian smugness in that tack too. Likewise self-righteous Christians who think their hands are too clean and pure to touch a ballot on election day. That attitude is killing us.

That's a long way of saying I hope GOP voters have purged out any sense of smugness from our thoughts, words, or memes. If we want to be blessed on November 8th, we need to make sure our own attitudes are as godly as humanly possible.

I recently heard a good sermon on being "just a little bit off." The pastor talked about the laying of the tracks for the transcontinental railroad, about how the course had to be perfect for the west and the east to meet in Utah, the last time the "left" and the "right" had a meeting of the minds. Surveyors went ahead of the crews, and if an error was detected in the direction, some of the laid tracks even had to be torn up and redone.

"Just a little bit off" would result in way off after many more miles.

Are conservatives perfect? Or sometimes just a tiny bit off in our attitudes? Without hyperbole, the future of the Republic depends on the answer. Economic-only conservatives don't care much about religion, and some of the religious are lukewarm. It's time for America's Third Great Awakening. It could happen in a couple of weeks!

Pray God for a discerning and humble electorate this time.

That's my message for today, short and sweet.

Devil-Media's Snare: Transgender Dr. Frankenstein's Child (Copyright 2022) by Richard Frates (Easley, South Carolina)

Transgender is a Fraud: Dr Frankenstein can mutilate and drug a man delusional, but he cannot create a woman out of a man. That is medical malpractice and should be against the Law. What state will be the first to outlaw such evil? Satanic Mind Control of Devil-Media, Mayo Clinic and Psychologist: Psychological, Intimidating, Fabricated-False Diagnosis. To rationalize their own perverted minds and accuse the innocent. Transgender, Gender Dysphoria, and Homophobia - Planted in Minds will be Harvested in Hell. Democrats and Dimwitted Republicans: "Equal Justice under Law" is made void with pandering - Special Rights based on race and sexual perversion. Special Rights: Establishing LGBT adopted children of Devil-Media and the State must be honored discriminates against and attacks innocent children and those who believe God.

Transgender Fraud: Those who desire to change their gender need reality denying counseling, not law forcing others to embrace their perverted - Homosexual Delusions. Gender Dysphoria Insanity: A man who Pretends he is a woman or a woman who Fakes being a man, need: Reality denying counseling. Instead: Dr Frankenstein, Devil-Media, Democrats, and University Delusional Encourage the Sexually Perverted and Insane and accuse all who will not embrace their madness of being insane. Using "fabricated fake diagnosis" "Transphobia" Professor-Delusional: Accused a reporter of "transphobia" because he did not agree that men menstruate. Devil-Forbid: That may offend sexually perverted and insane men pretending to be women. Ban Sex-Ed K-12 - Teachers are drugging and Psychologically Castrating School Children. Send a boy or girl to school and Frankenstein's child comes home!

Non-Discrimination and Hate Crime Law: Why? To Discriminate against and hate Christians and Jews who believe God. And gives pandering - attack-rights - to always offend black racist and sexual perverts. Romans 1:28 "Since they did Not think it worthwhile to retain the knowledge of God, He gave them over to depraved minds." Homophobia: A "Fabricated Diagnosis" to intimidate and ridicule those who will not bow to depravity. State officials, Educators and many church leaders are hopelessly "Homophobic." "Homophobia" Really is - Fear of being accused and criticized by Devil-Media's Faithful for Not worshipping the Devil by honoring what God decreed evil.

Bruce Jenner: Now - Frankenstein's Child Caitlyn: Mutilated and drugged Bruce pretends to be a woman - calls his fraud - Caitlyn. What is Bruce Jenner? A delusional, drugged, and mutilated man - pretending to be a woman. Devil-Media, Dr Frankenstein, and educators - deceived Bruce: They know transgender is an impossible fraud. But are using him to Mock God's Creation of male and female.

Has the Devil Recruited you? Yes, if you are Homophobic-Fearful of being criticized for Not honoring sexual perverts parading their sin. State officials: License - Sexual Perverts to flaunt their depravity. Most, republicans, all democrats, educators, and church leaders have swallowed the Devils Snare. Example: Republican talk show host instead of defending God's Truth - and rejecting the premise of the "Made-Up Fraud Diagnosis" "homophobia" boast "I am Not Homophobic." That is real "homophobia" confessing out of FEAR "I do Not believe God" I believe Devil-Media, Democratic party snakes and professor delusional - instead.

Devil-Media: Recruited - Sean Hannity. Sean swallowed the Devil's snare. Giving the Devil his platform: Interviews - Bruce Jenner - pretending to be a woman referring to Bruce as a woman using Caitlyn. Sean, you should know better - repent. You should have advised Bruce: Take off his makeup, mini skirt and high heel shoes, stop - living a lie - and behave like a man. Dennis Prager - Dangles on to the Devil's Snare: Preaching Sexual Perverts flaunting depravity must be "Respected" instead of exposed as evil and called on to repent. Conclusion: According to Dennis - God's Word and those who believe God must be disrespected? NIV - Psalm 12:8 "The wicked freely strut about when what is vile is honored among men."

Do this - Intimidated and fearful - Conservative talkers: A man calls himself "transgender" boasts about success living as a woman. Reply: A man who pretends to be a woman is a perverted fraud, then hang up. God is to be honored - Not sexual perverts intent on - painting you and your listeners with their guilt. Leviticus 19:17 - NIV "Do Not hate your brother in your heart. Rebuke your neighbor frankly so you will Not share in his guilt."

State Devil-Worship: Special Rights - forcing sexual perverts on Americans. Can Matthew 19:4-5 "The Creator made them male and female, and said: For this reason, a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife" be forced on Americans? No - then "Equal Rights Under Law" demands - neither should sexual perverts be forced on Americans. Compelling an employer to hire a man pretending to be a woman and dressed as a woman is tyranny. God's rebuke to LGBT America and "Last Day" - TEST of Salvation Is: President Joe Biden and Devil-Media's faithful Lawmakers and Church Preachers, forcing or intimidating you to bow the knee to sexual perverts parading their depravity. Christ predicted these End Time Last Days - Luke 17:28-29.

State Leaders Create this Law in your State: In Court all are male and female. Reject the fraud of transgender. And in court all are the same race or Judicial and social Depravity will Dominate! "Special Rights" based on being black, and a sexual pervert - makes being white and believing God a crime and makes void freedom of speech and "Equal Justice Under Law." Money facilitates black racism: Take money out of the Un-Civil-Rights Law - then black accusers and their damned lawyers like vultures will fly away.

America: Free yourself from Devil-Media and Repent. Let go of the Devils: Honor-Evil-Snare it will twist your mind and drag you to Hell. Take hold of God's Anchor of Truth. Judgment Day is the day of your, death; you will Not remember being dead. Our Father in Heaven paid our debt of sin. True freedom is freedom from sin. God's great sacrifice has been given for you: Jesus Christ Crucified is - Light that Shines beyond the graves.

Prophecy Articles

The False Prophet is Here! (Copyright) by Dwight Fleming (Oroville, California)

"The beast was given a mouth to speak arrogant and blasphemous words ... And the beast opened its mouth to speak blasphemies against God and to slander His name and His tabernacle" (Revelation 13:5-6).

"Then the king will do as he pleases, and he will exalt himself and boast against every god and will speak dreadful things against the God of gods" (Daniel 11:36).

"And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image" (Revelation 19:20).

Yuval Noah Harari is a history professor at Hebrew University in Jerusalem. He has written several books. Among them are: "Sapiens: A Brief History of Humankind" and "Homo Deus: A Brief History of Tomorrow." The term "Homo Deus" means "God Man." His books have become very popular and has won him the attention of many elites. Among them are revolutionaries, such as, Klaus Schwab of the World Economic Forum.

I first heard about Yuval Noah Harari in a video about a month ago. I was alarmed by some of his critical statements against freewill and against God. He thinks that God and Jesus and the Bible are "fake news." As you will hear for yourself in the two videos linked below, his statements and ideas about the future of mankind are shocking and definitely blasphemous against God and His plan for mankind.

The "New" Church of God Messenger
A Newsletter for the People of God
February 4, 2023 --- Issue No. 105

As we read in the scriptures quoted above, the Beast was given a mouth to speak great things against God. This "mouth" may be the Beast himself speaking or another person. Recall that Moses protested to God about his lack of being eloquent in speech. God then assigned Aaron, Moses' brother, to be his spokesman. See Exodus 4:10-16.

Professor Harai has been called by some a "prophet" because of his "faith" in technology and science and the control that it will provide in shaping the future of mankind. If this person should become the False Prophet, any miracles that he may perform in the future would be by the power of Satan. "The coming of the Lawless One is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders" (2 Thessalonians 2:9). This is the part that the False Prophet will play in getting the masses to worship the Beast. More and more people are becoming mesmerized by Yuval Harari's ideas and persuasive speeches.

If you watch other videos of his lectures, it will become obvious that his disbelief in a Creator God is the basis of his philosophy. If there is no God, then there is no purpose for mankind. We are no better than rodents. Since the world is facing major catastrophes, we must abandon individual rights and freewill for the benefit of the collective. His lack of faith in God is at the heart of his philosophy and is appealing to others who also lack faith. Since many do not believe in a Creator God, then his demonic thinking may provide answers to the faithless and give them something to believe in. This is fertile ground for great deception.

Watch and hear for yourself, his cunning and his shocking statements in the two short videos:

The Passover and the Ransom (Copyright) by Bill Hillebrenner (Matthews, North Carolina)

Were the Passover lambs Israel killed the ransom that set them free from Egypt? How does the Egyptians burying their firstborn killed by the death angel relate to the New Testament and Jesus?

I am (YHVH Elohim) . . . your Savior, I gave Egypt for your ransom . . . I give men for thee and people for thy life (Isaiah 43:3 - 4).

The blood over the doorposts kept the firstborn of Israel from becoming part of the ransom. A ransom is a price paid to set the captured free. It should be obvious that the lambs Israel killed for the Passover were not the ransom. Pharaoh could have said, "So you killed some lambs! Now get back to making bricks!"

Christ the Ransom

The Son of Man came . . . to give his life a ransom for many (Matthew 20:28, Mark 10:45, 1Timothy 2:6, Isaiah 35:10).

Christ our Passover was sacrificed for us (1Corinthians 5:7). He was not passed over on that 14th of Nisan. The church of God partakes of the token wine as firstfruits so that we will be passed over and not be dead during the millennial reign. But Christ's life is the Ransom for the whole world for freedom from enslavement of sin.

Burned not buried

Christ was buried at the end of the 14th of Nisan. Notice the bodily remains of the lambs in Egypt were burned, not buried as a type of Christ's burial. The blood the night before was a token. What was buried in Egypt as the Israelites were leaving? The Ransom, the Egyptian dead (Numbers 33:4).

The "New" Church of God Messenger
A Newsletter for the People of God
February 4, 2023 --- Issue No. 105

As the end of the 14th (sundown) was turning to the "morrow," beginning of the 15th, the hundred thousands of Israelites began journeying out of Egypt. The miles-long assembly were journeying out all night the 15th (Deuteronomy 16:1). What was buried at the end of the 14th at Jesus death? It was the Ransom, Firstborn of God.

The firstborn of Egypt was a major type of Christ. The tokens in Egypt were the blood of the lambs and the unleavened bread. The firstborn of Egypt was the ransom. The tokens for the church are the wine (blood of the grape) and the unleavened bread. The Ransom is Christ, the Firstborn of God.

When Was the Ransom Taken?

The firstborn of Egypt was Israel's ransom (the type) after midnight on the 14th. The Passover had already been eaten. Christ's crucifixion was the ransom antitype on the 14th after midnight. The Passover had already been eaten with His disciples.

Many of the Jews were killing lambs at the temple as Christ was dying. What they were killing was really the Holy Day sacrifice (for the night to be observed, Leviticus 23:8). In confusion, they were calling it the Passover, "the feast of unleavened bread CALLED the Passover" (Luke 22:1) or "The Jews' Passover" (John 11:55). But Jesus kept "THE Passover" (Luke 22:7, 11, 15), the "Lord's Passover" (Leviticus 23:5), not the Jews' Passover.

In Numbers 9:1 - 15 and Exodus 12:6 we find all the rites and ceremonies were to be on the 14th. Leviticus 23:32 makes clear that any day is from even to even (Leviticus 22:6, 7). The eating was part of the rites. It had to be eaten on the 14th between the sunsets and at night (Exodus 12:8). The burning of the bones was part of the rites. They had to be burned on the 14th between the evenings (sunsets), so they could be burned the next morning (day portion of the 14th, see Exodus 12:10).

Ray writes:

I see you are checking up on the subject of "Lemuria" by Childress. He has a dozen or more books on various "ancient" topics. But what follows is about a book that is every bit as much interesting as Childress' book and follows the story of Jesus (by other names) coming to Easter Island. The following is a continuation of said events of Childress' report.

He Walked the Americas

By: L. Taylor Hansen

"About 2000 years ago, a mysterious white man walked from tribe to tribe among the American Nations. He came to Peru from the Pacific. He traveled through South and central America among the Mayans [Mine: Egyptians], into Mexico and all of North America, and then back to ancient Tula [Mine: on the east shore of Mexico], from whence he departed across the Atlantic to the land of his origin. Who was this white Prophet who spoke a thousand languages, healed the sick, raised the dead, who taught in the same words as Jesus himself. These are true Indian legends, gathered during 25 years of research by L. Taylor Hansen, archaeologist, and writer. And from many different tribes all over the Americas....A man who came to the Americas with the help of a Phoenician fleet [the same ships as mentioned by Childress]."

Please note that the Cree Indians of Manitoba in Canada have the same stories in their history. Only their origins were from the East. Coming to America from the area of the British Isles sometime after the early 300's AD. They are identified by their "eagle feathers and painted bodies" (in the past). They likely did not come this far west until the 10-1100's when the Indians identified by their "buffalo heads" arrived in eastern Canada.

Nunn has written that "the disappearance of Mu is very convenient because it means that theorists like Childress can say what they like and appear convincing to people who are comparatively uninformed, as many naturally are, of the huge body of scientific information on Pacific geology and cultures."^[4]

Historical archaeologist Charles E. Orser (editor of International Journal of Historical Archaeology) has criticized Childress's writings:

Pseudo-archaeologists continue to perpetuate the idea that Atlantis was a racialized place. David Hatcher Childress, one of the most flagrant violators of basic archaeological reasoning, has provided perhaps the most outrageous racialized vision of Atlantis. In discussing Tiahuanaco in Bolivia—as a palace built long before any Native South Americans were present—Childress proposes that the majestic site could only have been constructed by the "Atlantean League." The league was composed of mythic seafarers who "sailed the world spreading a megalithic culture and wore red turbans over their blond hair" (Childress 1986: 139, emphasis added). Nowhere did Plato, the only actual source on Atlantis, mention the blond hair of the Atlanteans. Plato did mention that the men and women of Atlantis, being semi-divine, were inherently good . . . The correlation between goodness and whiteness is thus obvious in Childress's formulation and in much else that has been written about Atlantis.

Lucile Taylor Hansen (November 30, 1897 – May 1976) was an American writer of science fiction and popular science articles and books who used a male writing persona for the early part of her career. She is the author of eight short stories, nearly sixty nonfiction articles popularizing anthropology and geology, and three nonfiction books.

At Amazon under this link and in the one-star reviews it seems this author L. Taylor Hansen has lied a lot. Read the lower reviews of this book. He Walked the Americas: Hansen, L. Taylor: 9780964499706: Amazon.com: Books

I do understand that people want to believe these kinds of sci-fi legends but if they aren't true and there is plenty of reason to believe these aren't true then you should not pass them on to others as truth. These two authors are story tellers who try to pass some of their stories off as truth because there is actually no other record of what they say. According to the reviews on Amazon many times both authors quote other people that may or may not be telling the truth and then they put it in a book and pass it off as truth because it is in another book and not necessarily because they researched it themselves. Neither of these authors have degrees in the field of archaeology or anthropology. Not that you would necessarily need a degree, but it does not seem that either ever did the work that goes into archaeological digs or into anthropology. Hansen apparently claims to have gone to Stanford University and gotten a degree, but she apparently did not and Wikipedia backs up the one-star reviews on Amazon in that regard.

If you are going to read these kinds of books believing they are true, please check into the background of the author at least a little. If you want to find truth, open your Bible and read that book because it is the source of all truth, and the answer is in there some place you just have to look for it.

I forgot to add Acts 15:14. "God [via his son Jesus] first did visit the Gentiles." Which the book brings out, "before" he sailed east across the Atlantic to his homeland. Jesus began his ministry at age 30 by going "first to the Gentiles", then sailed to Judea, where he began his ministry to Israelites. This is why the Jewish leaders said to him "You are not yet fifty years old". He was then in his 40's.

Laura writes:

Joh 8:57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?

Read John 8:57 in context. They are laughing at Christ here. They are saying you are not yet fifty years old and you have seen Abraham. In other words, how could he have seen Abraham if he is only fifty years old. Abraham was long dead by the time the Jews said this to Christ. This verse has nothing to do with the age of Christ. According to the context of what is being talked about.

Act 15:14 Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

As far as Acts 15:14 goes, Christ was already dead when the book of Acts was written. This verse is not saying that God (Christ) visited the gentiles in person as part of His ministry on earth.

This section of scripture is talking about how Paul and Barnabas went to Cyprus and Asia Minor sharing many miracles the Holy Spirit empowered them to do and how the Gentiles received salvation through Jesus. In other words, the apostles not Jesus went to other places to preach about Christ to the Gentiles. If you read the entire chapter of Acts 15 you will see that it was the Apostles traveling to the gentiles and not Christ in person as part of His ministry.

I personally do not have time to read books such as the ones you have mentioned here and that is the only reason I asked for research help in that regard. I thought that if someone else was familiar with the book and the author that perhaps they could just write something up in regard to it, that could be shared with everyone.

In regard to: The Passover and the Ransom

Article by Bill Hillebrenner

Comments by Laura Lee (Bismarck, North Dakota)

Bill Hillebrenner's Article:

Were the Passover lambs Israel killed the ransom that set them free from Egypt? How does the Egyptians burying their firstborn killed by the death angel relate to the New Testament and Jesus?

I am (YHVH Elohim) . . . your Savior, I gave Egypt for your ransom . . . I give men for thee and people for thy life (Isaiah 43:3 - 4).

The blood over the doorposts kept the firstborn of Israel from becoming part of the ransom. A ransom is a price paid to set the captured free. It should be obvious that the lambs Israel killed for the Passover were not the ransom. Pharaoh could have said, "So you killed some lambs! Now get back to making bricks!"

Christ the Ransom

The Son of Man came . . . to give his life a ransom for many (Matthew 20:28, Mark 10:45, 1Timothy 2:6, Isaiah 35:10).

Christ our Passover was sacrificed for us (1Corinthians 5:7). He was not passed over on that 14th of Nisan. The church of God partakes of the token wine as firstfruits so that we will be passed over and not be dead during the millennial reign. But Christ's life is the Ransom for the whole world for freedom from enslavement of sin.

The King James Bible says it this way:

Exo 12:6 And ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening.

Most if not all literal bible translations state it something like this:

Exo 12:6 'And it hath become a charge to you, until the fourteenth day of this month, and the whole assembly of the company of Israel have slaughtered it between the evenings; (Young's Literal Translation)

Even Fred Coulter could not cover this up in his bible, but he tried by adding an extra word which was not there:

Exo 12:6 And you shall keep it up until the beginning of the fourteenth day of the same month. And the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it between the two evenings.

Fred Coulter's bible is called "A Faithful Version" and to my surprise it is among all the other bibles in my bible software. What Fred did here was to put the literal translation "... kill it between the two evenings," but then he covered that up by doing two things. He added the word "beginning" and in his online version he added the following note: "Heb. ben ha arbayim – between sunset and dark at the beginning of the fourteenth day."

ben ha arbayim which means "between the two evenings" has always meant at the end of the day. Throughout the bible the morning sacrifice was killed around 9 AM and the evening sacrifice was killed around 3 PM. Ask yourself, why would the evening sacrifice be changed to a different time just for Passover?

When it says, between the two evenings it is just a different way to say afternoon. The sun starts to go down at noon, that is the first evening. The second evening is when the sun sets for the day.

Exo 12:7 And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it.

The sacrifice comes first and then they put the blood on the door posts.

Exo 12:8 And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and unleavened bread; and with bitter herbs they shall eat it. Exo 12:9 Eat not of it raw, nor sodden at all with water, but roast with fire; his head with his legs, and with the purtenance thereof.

Next, they eat the lamb.

Exo 12:10 And ye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; and that which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire.

Whatever is left of the Passover meal they must burn with fire.

Exo 12:11 And thus shall ye eat it; with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat it in haste: it is the LORD'S passover.

Notice that they must eat the Passover meal in haste with their shoes on their feet and their staff in their hand. Why would they need to do that if they were going to stay with the Egyptians for another whole day?

Exo 12:12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD. Exo 12:13 And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

The death angel passed over at midnight on the 15th of Nisan.

Exo 12:14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to the LORD throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever.

And this day. What day? It is talking here about Passover. It is a memorial, or in other words a once-a-year holy day.

Exo 12:15 Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel.

This says nothing about keeping a Feast called “Unleavened Bread”, we are still talking about Passover here. If you keep Passover on the early part of the fourteenth you would be keeping 8 days of unleavened bread because in Worldwide you were taught that you do Passover on the early fourteenth at which time you eat unleavened bread and then you go back to eating leavened bread for the rest of the fourteenth and then on the fifteenth you eat unleavened bread again for seven straight days. Seems confusing to say the least and what are you doing keeping seven days of unleavened bread or eight?

Some hoped to get out of this problem by eating leavened bread on the early fourteen Passover, but according to scripture that does not work.

Exo 23:18 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the fat of my sacrifice remain until the morning.

In other words, you cannot eat leavened bread with the wine representing Christ's blood.

And then you have this one:

Eze 45:21 In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.

Bill Hillebrenner's Article:

Burned not buried

Christ was buried at the end of the 14th of Nisan. Notice the bodily remains of the lambs in Egypt were burned, not buried as a type of Christ's burial. The blood the night before was a token. What was buried in Egypt as the Israelites were leaving? The Ransom, the Egyptian dead (Numbers 33:4).

As the end of the 14th (sundown) was turning to the "morrow," beginning of the 15th, the hundred thousands of Israelites began journeying out of Egypt. The miles-long assembly were journeying out all night the 15th (Deuteronomy 16:1). What was buried at the end of the 14th at Jesus death? It was the Ransom, Firstborn of God.

Laura writes:

Deu 16:1 Observe the month of Abib and keep the passover unto the LORD thy God: for in the month of Abib the LORD thy God brought thee forth out of Egypt by night.

Deuteronomy 16:1 is talking about the last day of Passover/Unleavened Bread. They left Rameses on the morning of the fifteenth of Nisan which would be the “morrow” after the Passover Sacrifice and Meal. There was no day between the time the death angel passed over and when the Israelites left Rameses.

Exo 12:30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead. Exo 12:31 And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said. Exo 12:32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and bless me also. Exo 12:33 And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We be all dead men.

Num 33:3 And they departed from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the morrow after the passover the children of Israel went out with an high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians.

After leaving Rameses it tells of all the towns they had to go through in order to get out of Egypt. The Sinai Peninsula was part of Egypt at this time.

Exo 14:23 And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. Exo 14:24 And it came to pass, that in the morning watch the LORD looked unto the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the Egyptians, Exo 14:25 And took off their chariot wheels, that they drave them heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the LORD fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

They left Egypt by crossing the east side of the Red Sea on the last day of Passover/Unleavened Bread during the morning watch which would have been at night just as scripture says. The morning watch is from 2AM to sunrise if they kept three watches of the night and if they kept four watches of the night it would have been from 3AM to sunrise. Whichever watch they kept at that time they still left Egypt at night.

Bill Hillebrenner's Article:

The firstborn of Egypt was a major type of Christ. The tokens in Egypt were the blood of the lambs and the unleavened bread. The firstborn of Egypt was the ransom. The tokens for the church are the wine (blood of the grape) and the unleavened bread. The Ransom is Christ, the Firstborn of God.

When Was the Ransom Taken?

The firstborn of Egypt was Israel's ransom (the type) after midnight on the 14th. The Passover had already been eaten. Christ's crucifixion was the ransom antitype on the 14th after midnight. The Passover had already been eaten with His disciples.

Laura writes:

Christ was crucified with the Passover lambs between the two evenings (Noon until Sunset or 3PM). Christ did not eat the Passover that year because he was the Passover and He was dead. The Passover Meal was at even on the fourteenth as the day turned to the fifteenth and the death angel passed over at midnight on the fifteenth.

Bill Hillebrenner's Article:

Many of the Jews were killing lambs at the temple as Christ was dying. What they were killing was really the Holy Day sacrifice (for the night to be observed, Leviticus 23:8).

Laura writes:

Lev 23:8 But ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days: in the seventh day is an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

Lev. 23:8 says nothing about a night to be much observed. Christ was the Passover Lamb and He was killed at the same time the Passover Lambs were being killed.

1Pe 1:19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

Bill Hillebrenner's Article:

In confusion, they were calling it the Passover, "the feast of unleavened bread CALLED the Passover" (Luke 22:1) or "The Jews' Passover" (John 11:55). But Jesus kept "THE Passover" (Luke 22:7, 11, 15), the "Lord's Passover" (Leviticus 23:5), not the Jews' Passover.

Laura writes:

Luk 22:1 Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

Joh 11:55 And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves.

Luk 22:7 Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

Luk 22:11 And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

Luk 22:15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

Lev 23:5 In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the LORD'S passover.

I don't believe the Jews were in any kind of confusion here. In order to make blanket statements like the Jews were confused, you would have to prove that somehow. Do you hate the Jews? Before you answer that, please remember, Christ was a Jew and Paul was a Pharisee. But let's agree on one thing, the Bible is the inspired word of God, right? So, let's go back to a place in the Bible before Pharisees existed.

Eze 45:21 In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.

As I have tried to tell you before, the Passover lambs including Christ were kill between the two evenings (Noon to Sunset or about 3 PM) on Nisan 14, the blood was put on the door post, the Passover meal was eaten at even on the 14th as it turned into the 15th. The death angel passed over at midnight and the Israelites left Rameses and not Egypt on the morrow after the Passover sacrifice and the Passover meal. According to scripture the Feast of Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread are exactly the same week. There is no Passover on the early part of the fourteenth, but you still keep it because you are holding fast to a false doctrine that a man who did not understand Passover himself taught you. He wasn't a bad man; he just didn't understand it any better than you do right now and that man also told you that the Jews forgot when Passover was, but in reality the Jews forgot none of that. The Jews know when Passover and Pentecost are, but most people who spent years in the Worldwide Church of God do not know when those two holy days are. So, in reality you feel it is okay to keep the Jews Calendar for most of the holy days, but not for those two holy days because the Jews somehow forgot when Passover and Pentecost were. Maybe the Jews forgot when the rest of the holy days were to, did you ever think about that? And what about scripture? What are you going to do to get rid of Ezekiel 45:21 which clears up the whole argument?

Bill Hillebrenner's Article:

In Numbers 9:1-15 and Exodus 12:6 we find all the rites and ceremonies were to be on the 14th. Leviticus 23:32 makes clear that any day is from even to even (Leviticus 22:6, 7). The eating was part of the rites. It had to be eaten on the 14th between the sunsets and at night (Exodus 12:8). The burning of the bones was part of the rites. They had to be burned on the 14th between the evenings (sunsets), so they could be burned the next morning (day portion of the 14th, see Exodus 12:10).

Laura writes:

The only part of Passover that happened on the 14th of Nisan was the sacrifice of the Passover Lambs and possibly the blood being daubed on the door post. The rest all happened on the 15th of Nisan. All bible days are from even to even. If you can find two sunsets at the end of each day, I would like to see that. There is only one sunset at the end of the day,
